Many employees on the WTC and rescue workers were killed. And... one cannot forget the civilian victims of the senseless attacks on Afghanistan and Iraq.

“According to some estimates we cannot track $2.3 trillion in transactions,” Rumsfeld admitted. $2.3 trillion — that’s $8,000 for every man, woman and child in America.” -- CBS, 1/29/02

One day before the 9/11 attacks, US Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld made the above astonishing admission. Besides being reported months later in the CBS report given below, the quote is still posted on the Department of Defense website.

and analyze every belief that they ever held dear. If a certain belief passes the tests of evidence, deduction, and logic, it should be kept. If it doesn’t, the belief should not only be discarded, but the thinker must also then question why he was led to believe the erroneous information in the first place. Not surprisingly, this type of teaching didn’t sit well with the ruling elite of Greece. Many political leaders throughout history have always sought to mislead the thinking of the masses. Socrates was tried for “subversion” and for “corrupting the youth”. He was then forced to take his own life by drinking poison. It’s never easy being an independent thinker! Today, our ruling government/media complex doesn’t kill people for pursuing the truth about the world (at least not yet!) They simply label them as “extremists” or “paranoid”, destroying careers and reputations in the process. For many, that’s a fate even worse than drinking poison hemlock!

During a 1967 war with the Arabs, Israeli gunboats and fighter jets deliberately attacked the USS Liberty, an unarmed US communications ship. 28 Thirty five American sailors were murdered and 170 others injured in a prolonged Israeli onslaught - carried out in broad daylight and with the U.S. flag flying prominently. The intent was to kill all of the Americans and then leave the Egyptians to take the blame. Israel denied that the attack was deliberate but the chilling stories of the lucky American survivors clearly contradicts that lie. In 1989, the Israelis once again succeeded in framing enemy Arabs in order to enrage America. Former Mossad case officer Victor Ostrovsky became so disgusted with the criminal behavior of his own government that he defected from the Mossad and tried to warn America of just how evil and dangerous they were. Ostrovsky revealed exactly how the Israelis framed Libya for the bombing of a German night club which killed American servicemen. 29 It was this frame up job that caused President Reagan to bomb Libya, killing the 4 year old daughter of Libyan leader Muammar Qaddafi. France refused to allow US bombers to fly over their air space and bomb Libya because French intelligence knew that Libya was unjustly framed by the Israelis. Among some of Ostrovsky’s other amazing revelations are: that the Mossad often uses Arab agents to carry out missions, that Israeli agents are skilled at impersonating Arabs, that Mossad had a plan to turn American public opinion against Iraq, and that wealthy Zionists in America are often called upon to help carry out Mossad missions. Ostrovsky, whose tell all book, By Way of Deception, infuriated the Mossad and made him the target of numerous death threats.

Bin Laden strongly denied any role in the attacks: “I was not involved in the September 11 attacks in the United States nor did I have knowledge of the attacks. There exists a government within a government within the United States. The United States should try to trace the perpetrators of these attacks within itself; to the people who want to make the present century a century of conflict between Islam and Christianity. That secret government must be asked as to who carried out the attacks....The American system is totally in control of the Jews, whose first priority is Israel, not the United States.” BBC Monitoring Service. September 28, 2001 How fortunate for investigators that the hijackers “forgot” to take their Koran and Arab flight manuals with them! Within a few days, all “19 hijackers” were “identified” and their faces were plastered all over our television screens. Then, like a script from a corny “B” spy movie, the official story gets even more ridiculous. The passport of the supposed “ringleader” Mohammed Atta, somehow managed to survive the explosion, inferno, and smoldering collapse to be oh-so-conveniently “found” just a few blocks away from the World Trade Center!

The history of high-rise building fires provides no case histories of buildings collapsing due to steel beams melting from a fire. In controlled demolitions of steel-frame buildings, explosives are used to slice the steel columns and beams into pieces. A like a “razor blade through a tomato.” The steel is, moreover, not merely sliced; it is sliced into manageable lengths. The collapse of both towers were both perfectly symmetrical and methodical. The straight down collapse was identical in appearance to a well engineered, controlled implosion. A demolition company could not have done it better. Now that we know that all one has to do to bring a tall building straight down is set a fuel fire in it, the well trained experts who work for demolition companies should all be out of a job by now!

Five or six training exercises were in operation in the days leading up to and on the morning of 9/11. This meant that NORAD radar screens showed as many as 22 hijacked airliners at the same time. NORAD had been briefed that this was part of the exercise drill and therefore normal reactive procedure was forestalled and delayed.

Six months before the 9/11 attacks the World Trade Center was “privatized” by being leased to a private sector developer. The lease was purchased by the Silverstein Group for $3.2 billion.

The towers required some $200 million in renovations and improvements, most of which related to removal and replacement of building materials declared to be health hazards in the years since the towers were built. A federal jury on Monday ruled that the assault on the Twin Towers of the World Trade Center was in fact two occurrences for insurance purposes. The finding in U.S. District Court in Manhattan means leaseholder Larry Silverstein may collect up to $4.6 billion, according to reports. In February of 2002 Silverstein Properties won $861 million from Industrial Risk Insurers to rebuild on the site of WTC 7. Silverstein Properties’ estimated investment in WTC 7 was $386 million. This building’s collapse resulted in a profit of about $500 million.

This engine landed 3 blocks away from Ground Zero. Identifying undamaged parts from the damaged engine positive identification of the engine was made. However, the engine identified, a CFM56, is the primary engine of the Boeing 737 not the Boeing 767 alleged to have struck the South Tower.

An A&P mechanic for a major airline declared. I overhaul 767's. The engines are NOT from a 767. No 767 in existence uses CFM56's.

The excerpts below were taken from an article entitled: "Robot plane flies Pacific unmanned," which appeared in the April 24, 2001 edition of Britain's International Television News: "The aircraft essentially flies itself, right from takeoff, right through to landing, and even taxiing off the runway," according to the Australian Global Hawk manager Rod Smith. A robot plane has made aviation history by becoming the first unmanned aircraft to fly across the Pacific Ocean. The Global Hawk, a jet-powered aircraft with a wingspan equivalent to a Boeing 737 [NOTE: two of the aircraft involved in the 911 crashes were Boeing 757s, two were Boeing 767s] flew from Edwards Air Force Base in California and landed late on Monday at the Royal Australian Air Force base at Edinburgh, in South Australia state

More than five years into the global “war on terror,” spying has become one of the fastest-growing private industries in the United States. The federal government relies more than ever on outsourcing for some of its most sensitive work

y hypothetical threats and terrorism
The war against terror

Many of us enjoy the “war on terror”, more than they wish to admit. Feeling scared can be oddly pleasurable, like participating in a real-life action thriller, when one is allied in imagined combat with a united country of brave patriots. The plot line is simple--good guys against satanic forces--and pushes aside doubts and ambiguities. Does our own behavior in the world have anything to do with it? No, they resent us because we are so virtuous, kind, free, wealthy and democratic. [free after WG, june 21, 2004]

Since Iraq has something we want - namely oil - it’s OK to kill them. That’s what we are teaching our children. This is no a joke. That’s what our children are learning. Just listen to the soldiers in Iraq describe what they are doing. How they have unleashed their savage hatred against people who have never done a thing to hurt them. Oh, don’t argue 9/11 to me. Iraqis had nothing to do with 9/11. That atrocity wasn’t carried out by Arabs, it was carried out by rich white men who pretend to be pious Christians and Jews hiding behind their billions of dollars. For Americans, this is the profound lesson of the Iraq war. We don’t need a reason to rob and kill someone anymore. Our religious president says it’s the right thing to do, and has destroyed our Constitution, as well as our reputation around the world, to prove it. And this is the lesson of 9/11. You stage a terror attack to convince the world we need to fight terror. This is what the Israelis have done over the last century to the Palestinians. But it appears that we as a people - the American people - will never learn this lesson. Or, we will never learn it in time, anyway. We have let our world be radically changed by a few evil, rich, white and soulless businessmen who control the information we receive and the apparatus that governs us, and now we have let 200-plus years of relative freedom go down the drain simply because these men wanted to make even more money and sold us on a story that convinced us we were in danger from a foreign threat, just like they always do, just like they have always done. They have changed the character of the world based on a big lie that we swallowed because we failed to have the courage to challenge what they said. [John Kaminski, nov 15, 2004]

Police dragged composer-conductor Pierre Boulez, 76, from his bed in a top hotel in Basle, Switzerland and confiscated his passport last month while he was investigated on suspicion of links to terrorism, the BBC reported today (Wednesday). Boulez, the former conductor of the BBC Symphony Orchestra, the Cleveland Orchestra, and the New York Philharmonic, had reportedly been added to the government’s list of terrorist suspects because of public comments he made in the 1960s that opera houses should be blown up. In the 1980s and early ‘90s, Boulez was the musical director for six lavish opera productions presented on German television. [NB: No reports on whether his baton was seized as a potential weapon.]

Among the examples of abuse were techniques sanctioned by Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld for use on “unlawful enemy combatants” in the “war on terror.” These include forced nudity, the use of dogs to terrorize prisoners, keeping prisoners in stress positions -- physically uncomfortable poses of various types -- for many hours, and varieties of sleep deprivation. Some of these techniques migrated from Guantánamo and Afghanistan to Iraq in 2003.

Long before 9/11 US law had ceased to be a shield of the people and had been turned into a weapon in the hands of the government. The event known as 9/11 was used to raise the executive branch above the law. As long as the President sanctions an illegal act, executive branch employees are no longer accountable to the law that prohibits the illegal act. Many expected President Obama to re-establish the accountability of government to law. Instead, he went further than Bush/Cheney and asserted the unconstitutional power not only to hold American citizens indefinitely in prison without bringing charges, but also to take their lives without convicting them in a court of law. Obama asserts that the US Constitution notwithstanding, he has the authority to assassinate US citizens, who he deems to be a “threat,” without due process of law. In other words, any American citizen who is moved into the threat category has no rights and can be executed without trial or evidence. [from “The day America died” by Paul Craig Roberts]

The endless war on Palestine is promoted in the same way as the endless war on terror: by contrived war provocations. Despite the media blackout, a growing minority see that 9/11 was also a cynical act of self-terror -- and that exposing the fraud is the only way to stop the war.

After almost two years of the Obama presidency, I have to conclude, regretfully, that the influence of the deep state, or more accurately what in my new book I call the American war machine, has continued to increase, just as it has under every US president since Kennedy. A key sign is the extent to which Obama, despite his campaign rhetoric, has continued to expand the scope of secrecy in US government, and especially to punish whistle-blowers: his campaign against Wikileaks and Julian Assange, who has not been charged yet with any crime, is without precedent in US history. I suspect that Washington's fear of publicity is related to its awareness that US war policies are increasingly at odds with reality. The president is now trapped in a quagmire war he dare not lose, and which threatens to spread to both Pakistan and Yemen, if not further. I suspect that the deep forces dominating both political parties are now so powerful, so affluent, and above all so invested in the profits from war-making, that a president is farther than ever from challenging this power – even as it becomes more and more clear that America's era of world dominance, like Britain's before it, is drawing to a close.

Al Qaeda is an intelligence asset which serves the interests of the US administration. With regard to Syria, the US government is not “supporting Al Qaeda” Quite the opposite, the Al Qaeda mercenaries in Syria, recruited and trained in Saudi Arabia and Qatar, are “supporting the US government”. They are being used by the US military intelligence apparatus. They are paid killers. Their actions are implemented as part of a military agenda; they are the foot-soldiers of the Western military alliance. The atrocities committed by the terrorists are the direct result of para-military training and indoctrination. The US government is behind this process. Obama is responsible for the crimes committed by the “rebels” against the Syrian people. No one can reasonably believe in a “war on terrorism” which consists in channeling money and weapons to the terrorists. Its a non sequitur. “Support to terrorists”, portrayed as “revolutionaries” cannot be heralded as part of a foreign policy agenda which officially consists in “going after the terrorists”. But Obama desperately needs to hold on to the “Global war on Terrorism”. It’s the cornerstone of US military doctrine. Undermining the credibility of the “Global War on Terrorism” is a powerful instrument of counter-propaganda. We call on people across the land: Mobilize against Obama’s war. The war on Syria is illegal and criminal. The President and Commander in Chief’s decision to support Al Qaeda in Syria is in violation of international law and US anti terrorism legislation . The Gaza Strip is now the largest concentration camp in the world. The situation grows steadily more insufferable for the 1.5 million Palestinians who live there. Deliveries of food, medicine and fuel are made difficult or stopped altogether. Child malnutrition is increasing. Water supplies and drainage have ceased to function. Children die for lack of healthcare. Tunnels to Egypt, dug by hand, are the only breathing space. Journalists and diplomats are denied entry. Israel is planning more military efforts. Chris Gunness, local head of UNRWA, said in 2016: “There is 80% aid dependency and 44% unemployment... deep poverty has gone up three times.” (In 2000 only 20% of the population were aid dependent.)
